Sources and limits

Pay ranges employers posted on finance roles we sync from their own career sites, over the last 120 days, as of November 13, 2026 at 2:07 PM ET. Each posting counts once, at the midpoint of its range; hourly rates are annualized at 2,080 hours. Industry and company size come from our profiles of each employer. These are posted base pay, not what people are paid, and they leave out bonus and equity. A market with fewer than 8 roles posting pay is not shown. Your bands are private to you and are only added to our data, in totals, if you ticked the box.
